ASTRAZENECA, LP, et al.,

Defendants.

On January 9, 2013, the Court granted the Miller Firm's motion to withdraw as counsel for Plaintiff Lynus Stewart.

Thereafter, pursuant to Court order, counsel provided Mr. Stewart with a copy of the Court's order and with notice that the Court had granted the motion to withdraw and that he was required to attend the February 14, 2013 case management conference in person or through new counsel, or his case would be dismissed for failure to prosecute. See Docket No. 80 in Case No. 10-289. Mr. Stewart did not appear at the February 14, 2013 case management conference in person or through new counsel. Accordingly, the Court DISMISSES his claims without prejudice for failure to prosecute.

At the February 14, 2013 hearing, the Court granted the Miller Firm's motion to withdraw as counsel for Plaintiff Miguel Porto. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 11-5, withdrawal is subject to the condition that papers may continue to be served on counsel for forwarding purposes, unless and until Mr. Porto appears by other counsel or pro se. The Court directs the Miller Firm to 1 provide a copy of this Order to Mr. Porto, along with notice that 2 the Court has granted the motion to withdraw, subject to the 3 condition specified above, that a case management conference will 4 be held before this Court on March 21, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. and that 5 he must attend in person or through new counsel, or his case will 6 be dismissed for failure to prosecute. The Miller Firm shall 7 serve these documents on Mr. Porto within three days of the date

8 of this Order and by that date shall also file a declaration
9 attesting that it has done so.

10 At the February 14, 2013 case management conference, the 11 Court extended until March 14, 2013 the deadline for Plaintiffs 12 Annie Bootie, Bill Boury, Rosemary Camacho, Daniel Anderson, and 13 Sam Sapienza to finalize their settlements. By March 14, 2013,
14 Plaintiffs' counsel is directed to file a case management
15 statement setting forth the current status of each remaining 16 Plaintiff.

17 The Miller Firm and counsel for Defendants are granted leave
18 to appear by telephone at the March 21, 2013 case management 19 conference.
